

Participation agreement:

Participants confirm that their dog is currently in good health and has not suffered from any contagious illnesses within the past 30 days. Additionally, participants affirm that their dog(s) have not engaged in any harmful aggressive behavior towards either individuals or other dogs. Participants acknowledge that they have thoroughly reviewed and comprehend the following:

- Benevolent Bark Dog Training prioritizes safety but acknowledges that dog training can be physically demanding, potentially leading to occasional injuries for humans and dogs. While precautions are in place, I acknowledge that Benevolent Bark trainers cannot be held responsible for any resulting issues.
- I acknowledge and accept full responsibility for my dog throughout the training sessions. I acknowledge that Benevolent Bark trainers will not be held accountable for any issues that may arise, and I hereby release them from any form of liability resulting from my dogs participation in training.
- My dog's participation in training is subject to the judgment of Benevolent Bark trainers who retain authority to discontinue training as needed to safeguard the well-being of participants.
- I acknowledge and consent to the use of any video or photographs captured during any Benevolent Bark training event for educational, promotional and any other purpose deemed appropriate by Benevolent Bark.
- I acknowledge that training fees must be prepaid for a guaranteed reservation. Failure to pay in advance may result in the loss of my reservation. If I pay but do not attend, the full fee is forfeited unless there's an emergency, in which case a refund will be considered or denied by Benevolent Bark.
- I acknowledge that if I choose a payment plan and later decide to discontinue, I am still liable for the outstanding balance. If I decide to rehome or relinquish my dog, I understand that a refund will not be provided.

*Any unused hours are donated to training at a local dog rescue or shelter in need.
